The busy life of a Shedder.

I had a power failure at my house this morning and my PC, laptop, TV, DVD, i-Pad and my new surround sound music system were all shut down. Then I discovered that my mobile phone battery was flat. To top it off, it was raining so I couldn't go for a walk, bike or run.

The garage door opener needs electricity so I couldn't go anywhere in the car.

I went into the kitchen to make coffee and then I remembered that this also needed power, so I sat and talked with my wife for a few hours.

She seems like a nice person.

(Sorry girls, the devil made me put this one in. RL)

COMPUTER SUPPORT

New member, Ian Crocker can provide computer support to members of the Nepean Men's Shed. Ian worked for 25 years in computers and qualified for MSCE (Microsoft Certified Engineer) in his younger days.

Ian is willing to help with general PC problems on an individual basis. Such as

- Using a PC
- Backing up the entire PC or just the data
- Viruses
- Microsoft Office
- E-mail
- Photos (including getting them off the camera or phone)

- Internet
- and more

He is not an expert on Apple but may still be able to help. Ian is not saying he can answer or fix all or your wishes but if he can't, he will try and point you in the right direction.

So come and have a chat. If you have a Notebook (or dare I say it, an iPad), bring it along to the weekly meeting.

Be a technophobic I know Ian will be spending a lot of time sorting me out.

Thanks for the offer Ian.

Phone Etiquette

After a tiring day, a commuter settled down in his seat and closed his eyes.

As the train rolled out of the station, a woman sitting next to him pulled out her mobile phone.

She started talking in a loud voice: "Hi sweetheart. It's Sue. I'm on the train".

"Yes, I know it's the six thirty and not the four thirty, but I had a long meeting. No, honey, not with that Kevin from the accounting office. It was with the boss. No sweetheart, you're the only one in my life.

Yes, I'm sure, cross my heart!"

Fifteen minutes later, she was still talking loudly. When the man sitting next to her had enough, he leaned over and said into the phone, "Sue, hang up the phone and come back to bed."

Sue doesn't use her mobile phone in public any longer.

OUR WEB SITE

At long last our web site, lmshed.org, has been updated and improved. There is still some work to do. A big thank you to new member Ian Croker for his efforts.

The Husband Store

A store that sells new husbands has opened in New York City, where a woman may go to choose a husband. Among the instructions at the entrance is a description of how the store operates:

You may visit this store ONLY ONCE! There are six floors and the value of the products increase as the shopper ascends the flights. The shopper may choose any item from a particular floor, or may choose to go up to the next floor, but you cannot go back down except to exit the building!

So, a woman goes to the Husband Store to find a husband. On the first floor the sign on the door reads:

Floor 1 - These men Have Jobs.

She is intrigued, but continues to the second floor, where the sign reads:

Floor 2 - These men Have Jobs and Love Kids.

'That's nice,' she thinks, 'but I want more.'

So she continues upward. The third floor sign reads:

Floor 3 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, and are Extremely Good Looking.

'Wow,' she thinks, but feels compelled to keep going.

She goes to the fourth floor and the sign reads:

Floor 4 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Good Looking and Help With Housework.

'Oh, mercy me!' she exclaims, 'I can hardly stand it!'

Still, she goes to the fifth floor and the sign reads:

Floor 5 - These men Have Jobs, Love Kids, are Drop-dead Gorgeous, Help with Housework, and Have a Strong Romantic Streak.

She is so tempted to stay, but she goes to the sixth floor, where the sign reads:

Floor 6 - You are visitor 31,456,012 to this floor. There are no men on this floor. This floor exists solely as proof that women are impossible to please. Thank you for shopping at the Husband Store.

PLEASE NOTE:

To avoid gender bias charges, the store's owner opened a New Wives store just across the street.

The first floor has wives that love sex.

The second floor has wives that love sex, have money and like beer.

The third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors have never been visited
